Tell Them To Fix It or Vote No On SB 1

Texas Can Do Better than restoring 28 cents for every $1 cut from public education last legislative session.

On Wednesday, March 20, the Texas Senate will consider passage of the 2014-2015 budget. As of now, the Senate spending bill, SB 1, restores only 28 cents on the dollar, or $1.5 billion, of the $5.4 billion cut from public schools in 2012-2013. That means cuts of $3.9 billion would continue for the 2014-2015 biennium under this version of the state budget.

Send your email now, and call your state senator to let him or her know that with growing state revenue and a massive $12 billion Rainy Day Fund, restoring 28 cents on the dollar is a shameful response to the loss of thousands of teachers, the closing of neighborhood schools, and overcrowded classrooms.

Tell them to "Fix it or Vote NO!" on SB 1.
